1. Mother: What school do you want to go to?

Son: I want to go to Lakewood High School.

Mother: Why is that?

Son: Because they have a special program about computers.

Mother: Do you like working with computers?

Son: Sure I do. They rock.

2. Mr. Smith: Would you like to go back to school?

Mrs. Smith: Funny you should ask. I've been thinking about getting a nursing degree. What about you?

Mr. Smith: I've been thinking about becoming a truck driver.

Mrs. Smith: Oh, I hope you don't become a truck driver. I'd miss you while you were away.

Mr. Smith: Well, OK. How about if I get a nursing degree and you become a truck driver?

Mrs. Smith: Hmph!
